Dear Parents and Carers

24 November 2023

Our latest Ofsted report was finally published this week and I'm delighted to inform you that we have retained our judgment of GOOD. The report highlights the school's friendly and welcoming atmosphere, the high expectations that staff have of pupils and the behaviour of pupils as strengths, it also describes the school as a safe and caring environment for pupils to learn and develop.

The report includes a number of targets for the school to work on, which we have already set to work on. You can read the full report at <https://reports.ofsted.gov.uk>

Paddy in the Morning from 'this is the Coast' visited some of our classes yesterday to record 'Sleeps 'til Santa's Here'. This will be played on 'this is the Coast' on Wednesday 20th December at 7.40, 8.40 and 15.40. A video of the children singing will also be available on the radio station's website.

The winter edition of Raring2Go is now available online. This online magazine provides details of a range of local attractions and events, as well as a range of crafts and activity ideas. You can find this latest edition by following this link: <https://magazines.raring2go.co.uk/yorkshirecoast/winter2023/>

FLU IMMUNISATION TEAM are back in school on Monday to deliver the Flu Immunisations to all the children that did not receive it last time. If you want your child to have it and have not yet consented, the online consent portal has now closed so contact:-
