Dear Parent/Carer,

3 March 2023

What a wonderful day celebrating World Book Day yesterday! We loved sharing our favourite books with each other.

In EYFS and KS1, Mrs. Jay-Hammer's story time was made extra special by a hot chocolate treat.

In KS2, pupils performed their poems to each other with brilliant delivery, including the use of actions and music.

The poetry competition has now closed, and winners will be notified next week. It is going to be a tricky decision!

SCHOOL COUNCIL

The School Council had the privilege of holding their meeting in Scarborough Town Hall yesterday. Thank you to Mrs. Mallory for organising this amazing experience. The children were fantastic and conducted themselves admirably.

MUSIC LESSONS

The County Music Service performed for KS2 yesterday. We are keen to promote the number of pupils accessing instrumental and singing lessons through this service. Details of the offers available are on our website, or simply call us at school for further information.

PARENTS' EVENINGS

Spring term parents' consultation evenings are scheduled for Thursday 9 March and Tuesday 14 March. Appointment times will be available between 3.40pm and 6.30pm, and these can be booked by ringing the school office. We aim to engage with the parent/carer of every child in the school through these meetings, so please remember to book your appointments.
