

SEAMER SCRIBBLERS

Welcome to our festive edition of the Seamer Scribblers, our school newspaper, written by pupils for pupils

Look out for the hidden elves. Can you spot all 8?

We hope you enjoy reading.

This month's teacher of the month is.....

Miss Moore

Well done Miss Moore. Miss Moore is going to become a secondary school teacher in January. We will all miss you so much but you have won teacher of the month - well done you really deserve it.

Did you know, Miss Moore was crowned teacher of the year in 2018?

Author of the month

Hi again and welcome back to author of the month this months author of the month is

David walliams

"I like David Walliams because he is very descriptive and funny." said Isla from Oak Class.

"I like how some of the books could come to life." said Hannah, also from Oak Class.

Oliver from Poplar Class said, "I like his characters and I think he is funny."

Billy added, "I like the illustrations."

If you like David Walliams' books and you are looking for a festive read, try

'The Boy Who Slept Through Christmas' by Matt Lucas.

just for fun!

Easy Peasy

Christmas poems

Pine tree

I'm a little pine tree
As you can see
All the other pine trees
Are bigger than me
Maybe when I grow up
Then I'll be
A great big Merry, Merry Christmas Tree

Reindeer

I'm a little reindeer
Ready to fly
I'll pull Santa's sleigh
Up in the sky
Christmas is here
We can't be late all the children just cannot wait
Have a merry Christmas Xxx...

CHRISTMAS

C is for candles warm and bright
H is for happiness both day and night
R is for reindeer with red nose aglow
I is for icicles and cold winds that blow
S is for supper turkey and brie
T is for tinsel that wraps round the tree
M is for Mary with baby awake
A is for animals and the sounds they make S is for Santa what a wonderful sight..... Ho Ho

Why not have a go at writing your own acrostic poem?

Would you rather?

Have a pet shark or have a pet crocodile

Save your dad or save your mum

fly or teleport

x-ray vision or super strength

be invisible or talk to the dead

be dog or be a cat

for it to always be Christmas or for it to always be your birthday

for you to always sing or to never speak again to be purple all over or to be pink all over

Jokers' corner

"Knock knock"

"Who's there?"

"Police"

"Police who?"

"Police let me in!"

MERRY CHRISTMAS from the Seamer Scribblers: Grace, Hollie, George, Izzy, Holly and Molly.
