

Year Four

LITERACY

As writers we shall be learning how to use verbs, adjectives and connectives in our sentences. We shall be creating fabulous descriptions, play scripts, poems and exciting short diary entries. We shall be developing beautiful cursive handwriting and learning how to write letters and biographies. We shall be writing in the past and present tense and know exactly what makes a sentence with the 'WOW' factor!

I.C.T.

As information control technicians we shall be software developers. We shall be programming and debugging all by ourselves. We shall be We shall become independent PC users and work using different programs to alter font, size and colour for effect then save these into our own personal folders. We shall be toy designers becoming better at computational thinking.

Follow the adventures of James ....

NUMERACY

As mathematicians we shall be learning about :

- Number and place value
- Multiplication /division
- Position and direction
- Addition / subtraction
- Fractions
- Measurement / Money

.... we will be busy ants!

Flower Garden by Gustav Klimt

Art

As artists we shall be creating our own masterpieces using a variety of different materials and furthering our techniques. We shall also be looking at works by Gustav Klimt.

SCIENCE

As scientists we shall be looking at living things in their environment and finding out about Aristotle, grouping animals that live in our environment. We shall also be learning about states of matter.

D.T.

As designs we shall be creating and making our own models. We will be making our own rockets to hang in the classroom and developing our sewing skills safely and creatively

P.E.

As athletes we shall continue to look forward to seeing Mr Hindle our P.E. specialist. We will be improving our gymnastic, dance and co-ordination skills.

MUSIC

As musicians and singers we shall looking at Mamma Mia and Glockenspiel stage 2. After half term will mainly focus on preparing for Christmas.

R.E.

As part of religious education we shall be learning how and why Jews worship at home. We will look closely at the 10 commandments and the Christmas story with a focus on Mary's milestones.

CHRISTMAS

There will be a separate mini topic in December filled with exciting activities and lots of sparkly glitter!

HISTORY

As historians we shall be finding out about Ancient Greece. We will be studying Greek life, their achievements and their influence on the Western world!

GEOGRAPHY

As geographers we shall be finding different places related to our Greek topic based work.