Dear Parent/Carers

5 October 2018

PHOTOGRAPH DAY – WEDNESDAY 10 October. Individual photographs will be taken throughout the day. Family photographs will be taken from 8am in Numberland if you would like to include younger siblings who have not yet started school.

LIBRARY NEWS You should receive the latest copy of Library News today. I hope that you will be able to take advantage of the Book People’s fundraising scheme - £10 off when you spend £40 – and remember the school benefits by 10% of the value of any order placed.

STARS You may have seen members of the STARS team (Social Team and Relatives of Seamer) in the school hall during our Parents’ Evenings this week. They are aiming to raise funds for our pond and wildlife area development. Their first event will be an Autumn Disco.

STARS are also coordinating a Christmas Card offer and your child will be bringing home their design with full instructions next Friday.

GOOD CAUSES Thank you for supporting our good causes last Friday. The Fun Run raised £218.90 for St. Catherine’s and Grace’s raffle raised £103.40 for St Martin’s Church door.

AUTUMN DISCO
Thursday 25 October
 EYFS & KS1: 5pm - 6pm
 KS2: 6.15pm - 7.15pm
 £2 per child
 (inc. a drink & crisps)
 DJ's:
 Kellett & Gorman
 Glow Sticks
 £1 for 4
 Fancy Dress Optional

HARVEST FESTIVAL We will be holding Harvest Festival assemblies in school on Tuesday 16 and Thursday 18 October. Any donations of harvest products (tins, packets or fresh produce) are gratefully received and will be passed onto the Rainbow Centre who support the most needy in our community. Parents of reception new starters are invited to attend the assembly at 2.40pm on Thursday 18 October.

PARKING - PLEASE DO NOT PARK in front of garages and driveways around the school. Owners need 24hr access to these areas. Thank you.

CROSS COUNTRY The next races will again be held at Scarborough Sixth Form College.
