SUPERWRITERS ~ Poem by Eli in Year 6

'The Falling Conker'

Autumn is here,
Bringing a cheer,
The conkers are falling,
But one is stalling.

It is still growing,
Evidently showing,
Shiny and brown,
When will it fall down?

Wrapped up warm,
Away from the storm,
The wind swoops round,
And carries it down.

It's out of it's shell,
Which split when it fell,
Shiny like gloss,
In the leaves and moss.

SPORTS NEWS Well done to the boys football teams who competed for the Brian Robinson Trophy on Saturday – The 'B' Team beat Wolds & Vale 3-1 in the 3rd placed team final and the 'A' team lost out to Newby in the quarter final of the main event.

GOODBYE Today we say goodbye and thank you to Mrs Symonds who has worked at our school for 11 years. We would like to wish her well on her retirement.

School closes today for half term and re-opens on Monday 5 November.

Have a safe and enjoyable half term.

Yours sincerely
